

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO (DAYTON)

IN RE: * CASE NO. 19-30822
TAGNETICS INC. * CHAPTER 7
INVOLUNTARY DEBTOR *

MOTION TO EXTEND RESPONSE TIME

FROM: Kenneth Kayser, Ronald Earley, and Jonathan Hager

Pro se parties for the Tagnetics Involuntary Bankruptcy Case 19-30822 Move this Court to grant a 14 day extension to the time allotted to the petitioning creditors for filing response to Tagnetics Application for Attorney Fees as Compensatory Damages [Doc. No. 134] entered on November 8, 2019.

The Order Fixing Date for Filing Application for Attorney Fees as Compensatory Damages and Ordering Other Matters [Doc. No. 120] set the response date as 14 days from Tagnetics submittal which would be December 2, 2019, considering weekends and Holidays. On Saturday November 30, Kenneth Kayser had a medical emergency that precluded him from consulting with advisors and other pro se parties regarding a coordinated response to Tagnetics submittal. He notified the Court of his condition by email at the earliest opportunity on Monday December 2, 2019. The Court informed him that he must file a Motion to Extend allowing him time to recover and meet via phone with the other pro se parties to complete and file a response to Tagnetics Application.

In support of this Motion, the pro se parties state the following:

Kenneth Kayser experienced a sudden onset of severe hearing loss on Saturday morning, November 30. This condition prevented him from any verbal communication including a planned discussion with the other pro se party members on Sunday December 1 to finalize their response to be filed Monday December 2, 2019. Subsequently Dr. Kayser has undergone tests and is under treatment by a specialist and improving. Further tests and an MRI are scheduled over the next two weeks.

Pro se parties were unable to finalize the response due to Dr. Kayser's condition and his inability to discuss with his council. The response needed to be discussed via phone since the pro se parties do not live in close proximity.

The pro se parties request the Court consider these circumstances and allow the extension for an adequate response to Tagnetics Application.

Respectfully submitted December 3, 2019,

Kenneth W. Kayser, pro se
